Listening Examination

First Step Level – Paper F

2007

Instructions to Invigilators

This paper requires the candidate to listen to a selection of recorded material and answer the accompanying questions.

Each part of the test will be heard twice.

After every pause there is a tone. When the candidate hears the tone, he or she should write their answers on the question paper.

The candidate should write clearly in the numbered spaces. They must ask any questions now, as they will not be allowed to speak during the test.
